Arrival at Trelew (REL) Airport – Private transfer to hotel in Puerto Madryn with your English speaking guide. Mineral water on board included.

Puerto Madryn is a city in the province of Chubut, at 1,075 to the south of Buenos Aires. The town was founded on 28 July 1865 by 1,500 Welsh immigrants who came in the clipper Mimosas. The settlement grew as a result of the building of the Central of Chubut Railway by Welsh, Spanish and Italian immigrants. This line, opened in 1888, linked it to Trelew via the lower Chubut River valley. Puerto Madryn is protected by the Golfo Nuevo, which is formed by Peninsula Valdes and Punta Ninfa. The city is an important destination for tourists visiting the natural attractions of the Peninsula Valdes and its coasts.

Península Valdés Northern Circuit with Estancia San Lorenzo Penguin Reserve

Regular Service (Shared) | Guided Tour in Spanish & English | Duration: Full Day (10 hours approx.) | Natural Reserve & Estancia San Lorenzo Tickets are included | Lunch and Boat (Nautical ride or Whale Watching, according to the season) are not included | Available from mid-September to March

Website: <https://www.pinguinospuntanorte.com.ar/>

We depart early in the morning towards the Wildlife Reserve Peninsula Valdés, UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1999. After a one-hour drive we arrive in Puerto Piramides where we join a boat tour (optional) to see Southern Right Whales (Eubalaena australis) between June and December, and Southern Sea lions (Otaria flavescens) and Cormorants between January and March. No boat tours operate in Puerto Piramides during April and May.

Next we continue our journey to Estancia San Lorenzo, a traditional sheep farm, where we can taste a spectacular lamb barbecue for lunch (Optional, not included).

After lunch, we visit a stunning Magellanic penguin colony with about 500.000 penguins located 7 km/4,35 miles from the main house.

Our next stop is the Wildlife Reserve Punta Norte, where depending on the time of year, we can see Southern elephant seals (Mirounga leonina), Southern sea lions (Otaria flavescens), and eventually Orcas (Killer Whale).

Finally, we leave for Punta Cantor to observe Caleta Valdés, a large inlet that stretches along the peninsula's Atlantic coastline. On the way back, we make a stop at the Visitor Centre situated on the Isthmus Carlos Ameghino. Along the way, we may run into wild rheas, tinamous, guanacos, foxes, caviés, and armadillos.

> Check Wildlife Calendar: <https://www.alchemymc.com/puerto-madryn/>

Observations:

> Season: Operable from mid-September to the end of March.

> Main Attractives: Whale Watching (until mid December) or Nautical Tour (mid December to March), Lamb on the grill, Visit to the Magellan Penguin Reserve, Elephants and Sea lions, and more fauna.

> Route: 400 km approximately (200 km by asphalt and 200 km by gravel).

> Suggested Optional (Not included - In addition): Whale Watching Navigation Ticket

Regular Service (Shared) | Supplement to Península Valdés Tour | 1.30 hs Embarkation from Puerto Pirámides | Available from July to November

This unforgettable excursion focuses exclusively on the imposing Southern Right Whale (Eubalaena Australis), which arrives at these shores every year for the reproductive cycle.

Observations:

- Raincoats or Waterproof jackets are recommended.
- Whales watching trips last for 01:30 hs according to weather conditions, and the navigation agency provide life jackets and general information.
- The boats used are fully equipped and enough safety to enjoy this great unforgettable experience.
- Adults as well children will enjoy this aquatic adventure.

> Suggested Optional (Not included - In addition): Yellow Submarine - Semi-Submersible

Regular Service (Shared) | Guided Tour in Spanish & English | Duration: 1:30 hours approx. | Includes life jacket | Embark in Puerto Pirámides | Liable to weather conditions | Available from July to November

Unlike the conventional whales watching service, the semi-submersible submarine Yellow Submarine allows us to watch whales submerged in their environment. Underwater, the perspective looks completely different, which is comparable only to the experience of diving among them. While they remain close to the vessel, we watch them all the time through the 40 viewing windows on the lower deck. Onboard, passengers can walk around at their pleasure on the submersed lower deck, or on the outdoor upper deck and watch the whales from the surface of the water, as a conventional watching. It was designed and built especially for that purpose by the shipbuilder Federico Contessi in the city of Mar del Plata, province of Buenos Aires. Then, it was transported by land to Puerto Pirámides.

Observations: Liable to weather conditions, monitored by local experts.

Flight from Trelew to Ushuaia - Not included

Arrival at Ushuaia (USH) Airport - Meet with your ALCHEMY DMC Argentina guide and private transfer to hotel. Mineral water included on board.

Ushuaia is the southernmost city in Argentina, located at more than 2,370 kilometers from Buenos Aires. Due to its location near the South Pole, it has approximately 18 hours of sunlight in the summer, whereas in the winter, it only has 7 or 8; however, this does not prevent tourists from visiting it. Its gastronomy and accommodation infrastructure meet all expectations of thousands of international visitors that have chosen this beautiful city for the most spectacular voyages along the Beagle Channel and Lapataia Bay in Tierra del Fuego National Park. Ushuaia offers you untouched places, waiting for you to discover them and live the adventure of being at "the world's end".

3 overnights accommodations at Fueguino Hotel Ushuaia - Standard Mountain View with breakfast included

Website: <http://www.fueguinohotel.com.ar/EN/hotel.html>

Fueguino Hotel is located in the heart of the city of Ushuaia, province of Tierra de Fuego, in Argentina, at 6 kilometers from the International Airport and at 24 kilometers from the ski resort of Cerro Castor. This four star property counts with 53 warmly appointed guestrooms, each with panoramic views. Its facilities are new and modern which enhance the experience of its guests and make of their visit a pleasant stay.

Day 6: Ushuaia

Tierra del Fuego National Park & Nature Tour - 4x4 + Trekking

Premium Service (Shared) | Half Day guided Tour in Spanish and English Languages in 4x4 vehicles | Duration: 5 to 6 hours | Soft Trekking | National park tickets included - Lunch is not included.

Includes 4.5 km of trekking - Low difficulty, and refreshment.

Created in 1960 to protect the southernmost forests of the Beagle Channel, Tierra del Fuego National Park covers an area of 69,000 hectares. Even when this is one of the most popular tours, we offer a different experience: we take our guests in small groups to unexplored trails reaching hidden corners in the woods.

We take National Route 3 from Ushuaia and stop at a Panoramic Point in the Beagle Channel. Then we get to Tierra del Fuego National Park and begin our soft trekking, to the gaze at Lapataia. In our tours, we hike some of the trails of this exceptional forest. You can also pick our morning or afternoon trip (6 hours each approximately). After half a day of walking, we get a good idea of the uniqueness of this particular ecosystem.

Mountain ranges cross the park dividing it into valleys which make access difficult to reach. Unlike other Andean-Patagonian parks, it has forests by the seashore, six kilometers along the Beagle Channel: Lapataia Bay, meaning “woody bay” or “bay of wood” in the Yámana tongue

The tour can be customized on private bases, and is liable to weather conditions - can be adapted on site.
End of the world train can't be added to this experience.

Beagle Channel Navigation (Catamaran) - Sea Lions, Birds Island & Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse

Regular service (Shared) | Duration: 3 hours | Includes group round trip transportation to the Tourist Pier, with Spanish and English Languages assistance | Boat Ticket | Port Tax is not included.

The navigation begins leaving from the Tourist Pier, in the direction of the Beagle Channel, enjoying the panoramic view of Ushuaia's coast. It sails to the southwest, approaching the Sea Lion's Island, where, from the boat, you can enjoy the sight of sea lion specimens, observing their permanent habitat. Continuing the navigation, you will arrive at the Birds Island, the habitat of Magellanic Cormorants and Imperial Cormorants and a privileged area to see specimens of marine avifauna.

Continuing the journey, to finish, we will arrive at the Les Eclaireurs Lighthouse, in the archipelago of the same name, where the ship Monte Cervantes was shipwrecked in the year 1930. The return will be through the Paso Chico, spotting the Estancias Tunnel and Fique, with a view of the imposing frame that the city gives Monte Martial and its glacier of the same name.

Transfers to / from the Tourist Pier can be requested privately. This Navigation can be also combined with the visit to the Tierra del Fuego National Park AM departure. In low season the navigation is only available in the morning.

Day 7: Ushuaia

Free day at leisure. You can choose to take optional activities:

> Suggested Optional (Not included - In addition): Off Road Lakes Adventure Tour - 4x4 & Canoeing

Premium Service (Shared) | Duration: Full Day (8 hours) | Guided Tour in Spanish and English Languages in 4x4 vehicle | Includes lunch with beverages in a hut near the lake | Available from October to May

Have you ever dreamt about embarking on a high-adrenaline adventure with 4x4 vehicles passing through the most breathtaking landscapes? Canoeing in crystal-clear hidden lakes? Tasting delicious local meals in a stunning place? You can live all these together in one incomparable experience...

We start our excursion heading to the north of the island through National Route 3, we see the most popular ski resorts of the area, such as Cerro Castor. We cross the Andes and start the real 4x4 adventure! We pass huge paths of mud and water reaching the imposing coast of Lake Fagnano. At this point our guests take a moment to contemplate this beautiful setting and its particular energy.

After the brief stop, we make roads of our own with the 4x4 to get the adrenaline pumping during the journey. As we enter the forest, our guests leave the 4x4's to hike through an exclusive zone, reaching the Lago Escondido (Hidden Lake) where is located our shelter. At that point, our team is waiting our visitors with an Argentinean style asado (barbecue), accompanied with Malbec wine.

Lastly, we divide our group in pairs and venture out in canoes and other top of the line equipment to explore the lake. The order of the activities may suffer variants due to operative and weather conditions and the canoeing could be suspended eventually due to security matters.

Observations: The tour can be customized on private bases, and is liable to weather conditions - can be adapted on site. For security reasons boating can be suspended.

> Suggested Optional (Not included - In addition): Estancia Harberton + Penguins + Trek - Opening the Gates

Private service (personalized) | Full day experience (10 hs) | Vehicle and English speaking guide at disposal | Gourmet Box Lunch (3 steps) with beverages | Crossing to penguins spot & Walk with penguins (Shared activity) | Harberton entrance tickets. | Only available in Private | This excursion may suffer variants, due to Penguins spot availability | Available from November to March

Visit the oldest estancia in Tierra del Fuego, an imposing country house. Contemplate the gracious Magellanic and Gentoo penguins, closing the day with a scenic hike along the coast a river, reaching to exclusive isolated spots.

We depart in the morning taking National Route 3 to its intersection with “J” Route, where we turn into the coastal zone, bordering Lasifashaj’s River Valley, almost to the mouth of the Beagle Channel in Brown Bay. We get to the Estancia Harberton, where its manager, one of the founder’s great-grandsons receive us warmly. We walk around the establishment, learning about its history of wool activity.

Later, we take a Zodiac Boat to visit a huge colony of Magellanic and Gentoo penguins. Rambling around these gracious seabirds respectfully, we learn about their lives and the ways of conservation.

Back in the ranch, we go to Cambaceres Bay and hike from there along the coast of the river Lasifashaj up to a rough waterfall product of the narrowing of the river valley.

Finally, we visit Puerto Almanza, the most southern fishing port in Argentina.

Observations: This tour is liable to weather conditions, may be adapted on site. We recommend taking: Water – comfortable shoes – rain coat – camera – sun glasses.

Day 9: El Calafate

Perito Moreno Glacier - Los Glaciares National Park

Regular Service (Shared) | Duration: 8 hours (from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM) | Guided Tour in Spanish & English | National park tickets are included - Lunch is not included.

Located 80km away from El Calafate, The “Perito Moreno” is "Los Glaciares" National Park's host, where visiting its catwalks is actually a unique experience.

From the beginning, the trip holds pleasant surprises. On the village outskirts, it is possible to see the Argentino Lake on the right and its shallowest part, Redonda Bay (Rounded Bay), populated by a large variety of birds like black-necked swans, flamingos, steamer ducks, coots and Magellan geese surrounded by yellow fields, due to the "coirones", typical grass of Patagonian steppe.

The first 40km on the trip runs through Patagonian steppe until getting to the National Park access gate. Over the next 26km, it is possible to appreciate the timberline formed by "high deciduous beech" trees, white oak trees, "low deciduous beech" trees and some cinnamon trees. Flowers of several colors can be appreciated too, being the "fire bush" the one that stands out the most due to its deep red color. All of them are typical Andean-Patagonian forest species.

Facing the glacier every aspect is majestic. The catwalks are divided into 3 circuits: Central Balconies: 600mts (1.968 feet, including 1st balcony, 2nd balcony and Northern balcony); Lower Balcony: 1.100mts (3.609 feet, including Lower balcony) and Coast's Balcony: 1.117mts (3.665 feet, from parking area up to the Northern Balcony), all of them alternating with resting and panoramic balconies. The route of the visit will be closely related to weather conditions and participants' willingness and physical conditions; the available time to walk through and visit the catwalks is 1 to 3 hours.

There is an elevator available for disabled persons that leads to the First balcony, the point where the Accessible Pathway begins, extending to 565mts (1.854 feet).

The excursion is usually organized as a full-day program. The visit makes it possible to have different viewpoints of the glacier and enough time for lunch and for optional navigation to approach to the glacier's southern front.

Safari Boat - Sailing Lake Rico

Supplement to National Park Visit | Shared navigation in English and Spanish languages | Tourist Service: Schedule regular departures: 10:00 AM – 11:30 AM – 2:30 PM -4:00 PM. | Guaranteed departures are at 11:30 AM and 2:30 PM. The rest of the departures operate upon demand.

The tour is a voyage of one (1) hour by the Lake Rico, who can appreciate the majestic south wall of the Perito Moreno Glacier. This glacier ice wall is about 60m high and 100m below lake level.

The boat comes about 200m from where the glacier touches the Magallanes Peninsula and then goes at length (about 3km) south wall allowing you to enjoy the landslides that occur daily and the magical beauty of its seracs, cracks and intense blue.

This service is carried out with the boat Yagan, with capacity for 110 passengers. Boarding takes place at the port on the Bay "Under the Shadow", about 7 km before the glacier viewpoint. It is highly recommended to complete the visit to the glacier as it is not from the runways visible south wall in all its magnificence.
